Acceptance of risk

I accept that laser tag/laser gaming is a physical activity and accept that the activity has inherent risks associated with it throughout the game zones, carpark, access tracks, these include but are not limited too: fallen trees, sharp objects, holes, burrows, trip hazards, tree roots, game structures, buildings, barricades, raised platforms, vehicles, stairs, walkways, mud, lose ground, standing water, animal/insect activity, collisions, etc, whilst leisurequest take precautions to minimise the risk of injury occurring, I accept the risk by signing this form that the possibility of injury exists and that leisurequest accepts no responsibility whatsoever for any loss or injury resulting from any persons involvement in laser gaming that where not reasonably foreseeable on the date of attendance by the centre staff, furthermore it is understood and agreed that individuals participate at there own risk, for under 16 s we require a parent/guardian to accept this risk on behalf of the player and sign this form.

I also agree to follow game rules, obey all reasonable requests by marshalling staff, follow safety instructions and take care of equipment loaned .

I also accept that the division of guests into teams is at the discretion of the centre staff who will take players requests into consideration, players may also be playing with other members of the public so accept that teams will be split evenly according to the day,

We recommend that players wear appropriate footwear such as boots with ankle support to participate and that old clothes are worn as the risk of damage to clothing exists and leisurequest can not be held responsible for damage to clothing or footwear,

Statement and release

I accept the risks associated as described above and are happy to engage in laser tag activity's, or I sign on behalf of my son/daughter/child in my care to take part
